

DAY 11 - FEATHERS

Look for feathers today. Keep your eyes open as you walk to the grocery store or sit in your backyard. Collect them or take pictures of them if/when you find them. What do they look like? What do they feel like? What purpose do they serve for a bird? What makes one different from another? (It is said that white feathers are signs that angels have been visiting.)

DAY 12 - OUT LOUD

"If you ask me what I came to do in this world, I, an artist, will answer you: I am here to live out loud." (Émile Zola) Are you living out loud? Why or why not? If not, what would you do differently if you were?
