What is the Wasaga Women's Weekend?

Women have been recreating and refreshing themselves at Camp Wasaga annually for 35 + years. The weekend encourages connection and sharing, providing a safe place for healing, understanding and growth. Our workshops empower women to honour their uniqueness, develop leadership qualities, and make a difference! We laugh, sing, and have fun!

What to bring!

- * Water bottle
- * Journal
- * Sleeping bag or bedding
- * Pillow
- * Toiletries
- * Insect spray
- * Flashlight
- * White t-shirt, socks or other item for tie-dye workshop
- * Items for Silent Auction and cash to purchase tickets & Roaring 20s theme CD ($5)
- * Books for free Book Exchange

Camp Wasaga is nestled among the pine trees along the south shore of Clear Lake in Riding Mountain National Park, approximately 3.5 hours from Winnipeg. Follow Hwy #10 north to Onanole, turn LEFT (west) at Woods Supermart. Drive for 3.5 kms and where the pavement ends, turn RIGHT (north) on the gravel road (there is a sign at the corner indicating Camp Wasaga). Drive another 4 kms until you see the Camp Wasaga sign on the right! Turn RIGHT into the driveway and right again into the parking lot.

Circles of Connection

...a gathering of spirits, a festival of friends...

Camp Wasaga is affiliated with The United Church of Canada

Circles of .. Connection

In a world driven by consumerism and self-sufficiency, many of us have become disconnected from Self, Spirit, Community, and the Earth. During this retreat, we will look at the circle as a form that serves to bring us back into connection. We will gather in a story circle to connect with each other; we'll make mandalas to connect with Self; and we'll walk the labyrinth to connect with Spirit and the Earth.

About the Facilitator

Heather Plett is a teacher, writer, coach, and conversation host. She recently published a creative journal called Pathfinder, and she hosts an online Idea Incubator where great ideas are hatched. She loves to gather circles of people together to share stories, ask questions, co-create, and build community. She helps people discover their courage and grow their ideas.

Heather is trained as an Art of Hosting and The Circle Way practitioner, a narrative coach, and a leadership mentor. She hosts retreats and workshops; teaches writing, creativity, and self-discovery classes; and coaches emerging leaders. She loves to walk labyrinths, make mandalas, and play with art supplies. Heather's Pathfinder journal will be available for sale on the weekend - $25.00
