

Hi! I'm Flat Heather.

Since I can't travel to where you are, I'm traveling vicariously through my book. If you'd like to have a little fun with me, take a photo of me and my book in a place in your neighbourhood where you think I'd like to visit and post it online with the hashtags: #heartofholdingspace and #flatheather. Also share a photo of yourself with the book and I'll put you on the Holding Space map in my studio!
